

Key person policy

'Each child must be assigned a key person' (EYFS 2021)

Young children need to form a secure attachment to key person when they join the setting to feel safe, happy, and eager to participate and learn.

This policy should be read together with the Staffing policy.

The key person role

- A key person builds an on-going relationship with the child and his/her parents/carers and is committed to that child's well-being while in the setting.
- Every child that attends is allocated a key person before they begin settling in - it is not the responsibility of the child to choose their own key person.
- Where possible a 'second' key person is also identified for each child so that they can fulfil the role in the absence of the main key person, for example, during annual leave or sickness.
- The key person conducts the progress check at age two for their key children.
- The role is fully explained to parents/carers on induction and the name of the child's key person and 'second' key person is recorded on the child's registration form.
- The key person is central to settling a child into the setting. The manager and key person explain the need for a settling in process and agree a plan with the parents/carers.
- Shift patterns and staff absence can affect a child who is just settling in; where possible, settling in should be matched to when the key person is on duty.
- The number of children for each key person takes into account the individual needs of children and the capacity of the key person to manage their cohort; it is also influenced by part-time places and part time staff. The setting manager should aim for consistency i.e. matching part-time staff to part-time children.
- Photographs of key persons are displayed clearly.
- Key persons spend time with their key children for their well-being and development.
- Key persons spend time with groups daily; these times are not for focussed activities but for promoting shared times and friendship, such as circle/story time.

Parents/Carers

- Key persons are the first point of contact for parents/carers with regard to matters concerning their child and any concerns parents/carers may have are addressed with the key person in the first instance.
- Key persons support parents/carers in their role as the child's first and most enduring educators.
- The key person is responsible for the child's developmental records, completing the progress check at age two, and for sharing information about progress with the child's parents/carers.

Learning and development

- The key person helps to ensure that every child's learning and care is tailored to meet their individual needs. This is achieved through regular observation and assessment of children, using information gathered about their achievements, interests and learning styles to plan for each individual child's learning and development.
- If a child's progress in any of the prime areas gives cause for concern, the key person must discuss this with the manager or SENCO and the child's parents/carers.

'Second' key person

- The role of the 'second' key person is to step in when the main key person is absent or unavailable to provide a stable and consistent care relationship for the child.
- The 'second' key person is identified when the child starts but is not introduced to the child until an attachment is beginning to form with the key person.
- The 'second' key person gradually forms a relationship with the child until the child is happy to be cared for by this person.
- The 'second' key person shares information with parents/carers in the key person's absence and makes notes in the child's records where appropriate.
- The 'second' key person ensures information is shared with the key person.

Safeguarding children

- The key person has a responsibility towards their key children to report any concern about their development, welfare or child protection matter to the setting manager and to follow the procedures in this respect.
- Regular supervision with the manager provides further opportunities to discuss the progress and welfare of key children.
- The 'second' key person has a duty likewise.
